Scholarship for Ph.D. Students in Public Economics

Dear colleague,

The Department of Public Economics at the Max Planck Institute for Tax Law and Public Finance in Munich, Germany, is offering several ### scholarships for Ph.D. students in Public Economics.

The scholarships are for three years, starting at the beginning of the academic year on October 1, 2014.

Students, who are awarded a scholarship will receive a monthly stipend to cover living expenses, and will be admitted to a first-class graduate Ph.D.-program with courses offered by the Munich Graduate School of Economics (MGSE; <http://www.mgse.vwl.uni-muenchen.de>). They will be affiliated with the Max Planck Institute for Tax Law and Public Finance and be part of the research team of the Institute which offers an international environment for pursuing basic research with excellent facilities.

I would be grateful, if you could bring this unique program to the attention of excellent and highly motivated students at your faculty and display the poster visibly at your department. Please note that the ### application deadline is Friday, April 11, 2014.

Thank you very much in advance for your kind help and cooperation.

Yours sincerely

Kai A. Konrad
