

Join PwC Audit

Connect us with

PwC Romania: Career site

Instagram: PwC Romania

LinkedIn: PwC Romania

YouTube: PwC Romania

- 1 Apply for a vacancy using QR code or on our career page.
- 2 Meet our recruiter on a brief phone call, where we confirm our mutual expectations and explain the course of our recruitment process.
- 3 Go at our set of games to test the logical thinking, numeracy skills or ability to learn new things.
- 4 To get to know you better we will invite you to interview with your future superior or other team members.

Boost your career.
Build your skill set.

Be a part of The New Equation

About PwC Audit

We focus on getting the best people on the market to deliver the best quality work and life experience, powered by state of the art technology.

You will be the Workforce of the Future having extraordinary career opportunities at the best professional services company in the world.

4 offices +300 professionals

The experience gained at PwC changes the scale of opportunities and allows you to maximize the speed of a career start.

Developing Senior Associate

- takes part in developing an audit plan (obtaining an understanding of the client and its business processes, performing risk assessments & working with more senior team members).
- perform audit on more complex areas than those that are usually performed at entry level.
- learns new skills daily (project management, new technology).
- monitor parts of the audit project: status of work, data collection, field visits.
- collaborates with teams & clients that are based locally and abroad to ensure all stages of projects are delivered on time and in line with PwC's quality standards.

Requirements

- a fresh graduate or last year student from any field.
- excellent analytical skills.
- motivated by continued learning and experiencing different roles.
- english skills are upper-intermediate or advanced.
- great communication skills.

You will get:

Excellent working conditions

Very attractive salary package, technology led audit, friendly working environment, great working office spaces, flexible working conditions (office, client premises and home).

Intensive educational programme

3 months training programme delivered by our best tutors to gain professional knowledge. You will learn about PwC audit and develop soft skills that will help you make a smooth transition to the next role.

Variety of tasks and roles

Gain practical experience by contributing to the development of audit plants, taking part in project management and delivering audit work.

Accelerated career and development

Opportunities for intensive career growth. Transparent career development system. A dedicated mentor will provide you support and coaching throughout your career.