

MFB prizes

- 1 Best paper
- 2 Best paper presented by a PhD candidate
- 3 Special prize for best paper on topics in Banking
- 4 Prize pool for devoted participants

Powered by:

Best paper award

- ① 3000 RON (net of taxes)
  - ② 2000 RON (net of taxes)
  - ③ 1000 RON (net of taxes)
- presenter should be a tenured professor affiliated with FABBV;
  - presentation should be sent to organizers no later than midnight on the day of the seminar
  - prizes awarded in order, to no more than 34% of all eligible persons;
  - organizers are excluded.

Best paper presented by a PhD candidate

- ① 3000 RON (net of taxes)
  - ② 2000 RON (net of taxes)
  - ③ 1000 RON (net of taxes)
- presenter should be a PhD candidate affiliated with FABBV;
  - presentation should be sent to organizers no later than midnight on the day of the seminar
  - prizes awarded in order, to no more than 34% of all eligible persons;
  - organizers are excluded.

Special prize for best paper on topics in Banking

- 1 3000 RON (net of taxes)
- presenter should be affiliated with FABBV;
- presentation should be sent to organizers no later than midnight on the day of the seminar
- indicative (non-exact) JEL classification: G2 (Financial Institutions and Services).
- has priority over other prizes and does not accumulate with others;
- organizers are excluded.

Prize pool for devoted participants

- ① 3000 RON (net of taxes) to be shared among devoted participants.
- minimum 10 in-person attendances to the seminar (recorded in the participation sheet and validated by the organizers);
- maximum 500 RON (net of taxes) to each eligible person;
- organizers are excluded.

MFB prizes

- ① Prizes are conditioned on receiving the sponsorship from our partner
- ② Prizes are awarded each semester
- ③ Prizes can be subject to upward revisions

Thank you to:

